

Prescott College Southern Yr 3 Ukulele Ensemble

Year 3 students have the opportunity to learn to play the soprano ukulele. This is a great introduction to learning to play in an ensemble and learning to read music.

Each lesson will comprise of:

- Warm up and technique exercises
- Theory games
- Instructional time
- Independent practice time
- Teacher assessment

Please note the following:

- Children will miss their regular schoolwork and are not required to make up the work missed. If the class is completing bookwork at the time, a stamp will be placed in their books indicating that they were at ukulele Tuition.
- Students do not need their own ukulele to participate. The school has a set of ukuleles suitable for practicing on. However, these ukuleles will not be available to take home.
- There are NO FEES to join this ensemble
- Performance quality ukuleles can be purchased through the school for approx. $40

Opportunities will be provided throughout the year for children to perform including:

- Prescott Music Showcase in Term 2
- Grandparents Day & Book Week in Term 3
- Carols on the Lawn in Term 4
