

Listening to Children Read Workshops

A workshop will be conducted for parents who would like to learn more about listening to their children read. We would encourage all parents who have young children as well as adults participating in the parent reading help program at the school to participate.

At this stage we have only scheduled a morning session. Please complete the form below if it applies to you.

Please note the following:

- Mrs Enid Street will be conducting the workshop, which will take approximately one hour.
- Program will be held at 9.00am in the Library on Tuesday, February 14
- We would encourage all parents who are volunteering to listen to children read in the classrooms, and have not attended such a session before, to take the time to attend this session.

Please complete the following to register your interest in the Reading Group.
